When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.

If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.

A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

TELEGRAMS TO STANDARD.

London, 23rd—The attitude of the Cabinet in face of the result of the elections causes considerable speculation. It is now said that Lord Salisbury will summon the new Parliament and before resigning power, take a vote of the new House; but this rumour is not believed and it is thought that the resignation of the Cabinet is only a question of a day or two.

Madrid, 23rd—The Queen Regent and boy-King will leave next week for San Sebastian, where they will remain until early in October, and go to Huelva for the Columbus fetes on the 12th of that month.

Berne, 23rd—The Commercial Treaty between France and Switzerland has been signed.

Brussels, 23rd—In view of the fears expressed in Switzerland as to the neutrality of the second-rate Powers, Government will ask the Chambers in autumn for more money to complete the fortifications on the French and German frontiers.

Rome, 23rd—Public confidence in the Giolitti Cabinet is increasing, owing to the improvement in the economic and financial situation. The exports have increased in the second fortnight of July, so far.

Berlin, 23rd—The Emperor will leave the Sofoden Islands, to return here on Monday. He will go to Wilhelmshaven on August 4th. His health is excellent.

Paris, 23rd—The Gaulois ridicules the idea of sending a French squadron to Genoa, to salute King Humbert on his visit to the Exhibition there. Other papers, especially the Government organs, support the proposal, and say that it is a debt of courtesy which France should discharge, as an Italian squadron visited Toulon last year during President Carnot's visit to that port.

Vienna, 23rd—Great praise is given to Doctors Benedict and Mosetig of this city for their system of curing epilepsy by trepanning and extracting some of the grey matter of the brain. Doctor Benedict has discovered the means of localizing the disease before trepanning, and has performed several successful operations.

(To the "Prensa".)

Tangier, 22nd.—Sir Ewan Smith arrived here to-day in the man-of-war Amphion.

London, 22nd.—Mr Gladstone arrived at Hawarden to-day and met with an enthusiastic reception.

Berlin, 22nd.—The Hamburyer Nacrichten has published another article on the selection of Caprivi as Chancellor. It makes bitter charges against Caprivi, and in a veiled way against the Emperor.

Rome, 22nd.—The cruiser Giovanni Bausan has been ordered to New York in October to take part in the Columbus celebration.

St. Petersburg, 22nd.—Persia has asked Russia for an indemnity for the death of some Persians in Baku, through sufficient sanitary precautions not having been taken.

Cholera has appeared at Nivji-Novgrod, a place of 70,000 souls, celebrated for its great yearly Fair, which it will now be impossible to hold this year.

Six fresh cases and four deaths are reported at Kolomna, a town on the river Oku. The plague is increasing at Saratof, also at Samara. At Astrakan it is declining.

New York, 22nd.—Foreign Bonds steady in London. Silver bars 39 7/16ths.

Madrid, 22nd.—Miss Sagasta, daughter of the ex-Premier, has just been married. The value of her presents, including that from the Queen Regent, is £40,000 stg.

Washington, 22nd.—Blaine will be asked to go to Brussels to represent his country at the Monetary Conference.

NICKEL COINAGE

Minister Hansen will have an everlasting claim to the gratitude of the public if his project be sanctioned by Congress, for the abolition of all paper-money under one dollar, and the substitution of nickel coins of five, ten, twenty and fifty cents. The bill in question provides also for the coinage of gold and silver pieces, but this we regard, for obvious reasons, as a clause complimentary to the "amour propre" of Argentines. Some body might say, otherwise, "is it possible "that our mint serves only to knock "off nickel counters, and that we are "to have no gold or silver coinage.?"

The bare idea of a mint in a country of inconvertible paper-currency is one of the wildest possible absurdities. It is a well-known axiom that "a baser currency always drives out a better one," and inconvertible shinplasters are the basest on earth.

Nickel coins, nevertheless, can be made of such very low, intrinsic value that it will not pay to export them. For example a ton of nickel, worth £100, can be made into 100,000 coins of 10 cents (weighing 10 grammes each), the currency value of which would be 10,000$ or about £600 sterling. The 10 cent coin would be about the size of an English shilling, weighing 8 grammes, the 50 cent something smaller than a silver dollar. There would be, of course, no smaller coin than 5 cents, which would be about the size of an English sixpence or half-a franc, but this would cause no inconvenience as regards small change. In France, for instance, centimes are used for account, but no one has ever seen such a coin, the smallest being 5 centimes, equal to nearly the same as 5 cents of our paper money or an English halfpenny.

It is true that the tramways are compelled to run on a tariff of 8 cents, but this should be abolished, and an uniform rate of 10 cents adopted. In what part of the world can you travel in tramways for less than 10 cents of Argentine paper, which is only 3 cents of copper or hard money? As regards the newspapers which are sold in the streets they may be fixed at 5 cents or 10 cents as the proprietors may see fit, without any inconvenience to the public.

In a word the currency will be simplified, and we shall get accustomed to the use of coin. It is true that a handful of nickel coins will represent only one-tenth of the same amount of silver ones in Europe. But we shall not necessarily have to carry small canvas bags as in Morocco. There will still be dollar notes, which will facilitate change, as common as at present.

It is admitted on all hands that the great nuisance of our present paper-money consists in notes of five, ten, twenty and fifty cents, all which will be abolished. This will be, moreover, an immense gain to public health, as all medical men are agreed that small-pox, scarlatina and other diseases are propagated by the filthy currency now in use. We do not exaggerate in saying that the foul and loathsome small-note issue is the direct cause of 2 per cent of the mortality of our city. In other words it sends 250 persons yearly to a premature grave, in Buenos Ayres alone, besides causing a prodigious amount of sickness. All this will be remedied by Mr Hansen's proposed nickel currency.

FINANCES AT MONTEVIDEO.

It must be confessed that the statesmen of Montevideo have a strange way of expressing their ideas on financial subjects. This may be justified on the plea that Banda Oriental is "an exceptional country," but the views propounded by Pres. Herrera are none the less startling. We read, for instance, in his Message to the Assembly on the 21st inst. as follows:—

"The emission in circulation in Dec. 1889 was $15,980,000, and it is now only $2,390,000. There must be money hidden away in private safes, and thus it is that with a stock of 20,000 millions of dollars our circulation is under 5,000,000 dollars.

"The advantage which neighboring countries enjoy by living under a regimen of (shin-plaster) paper-money requires to be balanced in Montevideo by means of that prodigious multiplier of capital called credit."

No reasonable person can imagine what His Excellency means by a stock of 20,000 millions of dollars, say 4,200 millions of pounds sterling. The total value of the Republic of Uruguay, its lands, houses, cattle, railways, light-houses, shops, furniture, clothing etc. does not exceed 450,000,000$ or about £95,000,000 sterling, say 2 per cent of the colossal figure quoted by Pres. Herrera.

As regards the advantage which Buenos Ayres and Brazil enjoy from a shin-plaster currency there must be a sarcasm in His Excellency's remark, since this is admittedly the greatest curse that can befall any country. All our efforts on this side of the River Plate are directed to the cremation of 15,000,000 of shin-plasters yearly, whereas President Herrera regards them as beneficent agents of wealth.

Finally His Excellency proclaims to mankind the new dogma "that credit is a prodigious multiplier of capital." We have long since learned in Buenos Ayres that credit is one thing, capital another. Credit is often as the reflection in a mirror, of capital, but it is never anything more. If used injudiciously it may produce the most tremendous disasters. Paper-money is one of the commonest forms of credit, and may be multiplied to any degree, without increasing the capital or wealth of a country by the value of a dollar.

The blacksmith who makes a plough, the carpenter who makes a dozen chairs, the farmer who raises a ton of wheat—all these add to the wealth and capital of a country; but the bank which issues inconvertible notes adds only to the depreciation of the currency, which should be the life-blood of the commercial body.

We fear that bad times are in store for the Republic of Uruguay if the ideas of Pres. Herrera about currency and expansion of credit find echo in the National Assembly.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

POSTSCRIPT.

(From our own Correspondent.)

June 25th.

The Buenos Ayres correspondent of the London Standard is doubtless a gentleman of pachydermatous mental covering. He will laugh at the diatribes of Truth, the jeers of the South American Journal and the Financial News, and the raised eyebrows of the Statist. He has created a storm in a teapot which the Neptune of Argentine Finance, Dr. Victorino de la Plaza, has been called upon to allay by one of those official contradictions so common. The Argentine President elect, says Dr. Plaza, never thought of such a thing as "scaling down" the interest on Argentine Government securities upon the expiry of the Moratorium in 1893. The Statist of to-day refers to the subject in a very good article on "Argentina" which I enclose, and enclose with pleasure, though it cost me sixpence, as it saves me the trouble of going further into financial matters. In fact I am forestalled on all sides to-day and need not trouble you with anything but good wholesome printers' type. Even the "gauchos" at the "Wild West" I intended to interview my own dear self have been "done" by some impertinent fellow in the Pall Mall, who seems to have learned a kind of Spanish in Spain and has the impudence to think that our good "gauchos" speak a "dialect"—a "patois." "Buenas tardes" said he "Entre Vmd amigo" say they. "Hasta la vista" says he, "Vaya con Dios,' says he said they. But I know better; and am not prepared to repeat what they did say. The "gauchos" have had bad weather for their "debut." Next week perhaps I will have a look at their "bolas" and "lasses." You will observe from the interviewer's account that the chief of the "gauchos" at Earl's Court, one Martinez, is from the province of Buenos Ayres. So much for the Graphic's wisdom. It told us that in these advanced times there were no "gauchos" left in the Argentine Republic except in the extreme north. Jujuy Perhaps? Returning to city articles, I notice, that Argentines, hesitating after their drop of 2 last week, have further declined until from 76, the top price marked last week for the 1886 bonds, there was business as low as at 71¼, followed by a recovery of 2 to 2½ and an uncertain market since. Uruguay bonds have gradually receded in the past fortnight with business recorded at the lowest price since the new Three and a Half per Cents came into existence. The fact is there is nothing doing on the London Stock Exchange. By some this is attributed to the state of political affairs on the continent, although nothing has occurred to warrant such an opinion. Others and notably the Financial News which the editor, Mr. Marks, makes use of as an electioneering organ, think that the financial world is alarmed at the thought of Mr. Gladstone returning to power. His idea is for one thing a proof that the Tories and Liberal Unionists are in fear and trembling as to the result of the elections, and participate in Mr. T. P. O'Connor's view that Mr. Gladstone will win by an immense majority. The idea is also characteristically supported by a deliberate lie. For when we come to particulars and find that Mr. Marks ascribes the fall in the shares of the Bank of Ireland and in other Irish securities to the dread of Mr. Gladstone's electoral victory, we see in the Statist that the fall in the Bank of Ireland shares is due to the same reason which it gives for the fall in the Bank of England shares—the arrangement that Mr. Goschen has forced upon both banks by which the Treasury is to save in commissions about £50,000 per annum. That, in its turn, may not be the main reason. As the Statist says, "in the last few days the market (for Consols) has again drooped and there have been "makings" in the official list as low as 96⅛ for cash. It is noticeable that this week's lowest price has been within 2 of the worst quotations of last year, and the worst during the Baring crisis of 1890 was 93 3/8 for cash. Bank of England Stock, which has this year touched 343½, has been falling sharply the last few days, and the decline since the highest was touched has reached nearly 18, to 329."

It is obvious that the decline in bank shares and in Consols has nothing to do with temporary causes. The securities named expose the condition of the market more truly than joint stock shares which are kept up by artificial means. In ordinary times when money is dirt cheap as it is now, Consols and "trustees securities" rise in price. But Mr. Goschen's "scaling down" has obliged investors to go elsewhere, and the competition is so keen that deposits are refused and none but banks like Messrs Banker and Company, which has just stopped in Mark Lane, and has been employing its money in financing "Daily" and "Weekly Oracles" and "Trade Finance and Recreation" and trumpery business can afford to pay interest on deposits. Ligitimate interest, legitimate dividends decline and will continue to decline until the existing "Baringismus" is played out.

There are many things of minor importance that I could refer to, but I have sent you as much printed matter of interest as will occupy your reserved space until next mail.

H. M. Stanley is a candidate for an M. P. ship on the Unionist ticket. As you will see from enclosures, he has been handled rather roughly and is "run" by his wife.

THE RIO GRANDE REVOLUTION.

Montevideo, Friday.

Dr. Barros Cassal has just arrived from Rio Grande. He will leave his family here, and then return to Porto Alegre to head the Separatist movement. He says that the presidential question was a minor one in the recent struggle, which ended in the defeat of the Government party.

The Dia publishes the following telegram:—

Rivera, 22nd

It is necessary that the Government take active measures, as the Brazilian troops are daily invading Uruguayan territory. General Isidoro's forces are at present encamped round the residence of Mr. Ventura Lopez, which is situated in Uruguayan territory. The Chief of Police has left to order the Brazilian forces to cross the frontier. This circumstance and the recent murder of Juan Castellanos keep us in a great state of patriotic excitement. It is necessary that the Government enforce respect for the boundary-line. Castellanos was murdered by Brazilian soldiers.

In view of the serious news from the frontier, Government has decided to immediately send forces to the frontier towns. A cabinet council was held yesterday, and two regiments under General Escobar were sent up this evening.

There appears to be a deal of mystery in all this, and the public mind is much excited. The Government is in constant telegraphic communication with the frontier-authorities.

The troops sent up to the frontier towns are the 2nd. Regiment of cavalry and the 4th. of the line. The latter is commanded by Colonel Fernandez.

B. AYRES TO TUCUMAN.

III.

The shaky relic of a vis-a-vis, which we took at the station and to which we committed our bones and baggage, conveyed us through clouds of dust and with many a jolt to the door of the Hotel de los Dos Mundos. There are no less than seven large hotels and a number of minor ones in Tucuman. All seem to be doing a good business, thanks to the constant stream of families who are bound to stop here on their way to the famous thermal baths of Rosario de la Frontera. To reach these baths you have to take the Central Northern Extension. Trains run three times a week. If you are a governor, a minister or the manager of a state-bank, you can easily get a special train, and thus remain only a few hours in Tucuman. But if you are only a common mortal, pay your four dollars a day and have a good look round. I can without hesitation recommend the Hotel de los Dos Mundos. It was at one time the private residence of the Mendez family. It is a very fine structure of one story, reminding me of what I had read about the palaces of Pompeia. It contains a superb mosaic "patio" encircled by a lofty corridor, which is supported by a score of handsome columns. This must be a cool place in summer. The proprietor, Mr. Francisco Seoanes, an enterprising Spaniard, takes very good care of his guests. You may get up as early as you please, for the weather, although a little fresh in the morning at this time of the year, is delightful. Towards midday it is warm, though not unpleasantly so, and as a rule in the evening the temperature is very agreeable. Of course I am talking of winter, for we are in winter here, but a Tucuman winter is a B. Ayres spring, or a European summer. There is really no winter here; spring, summer, and autumn are the joyous proprietors of the climate. As for a Tucuman spring, if I may judge from what I hear on all sides, there is no climate on this planet to equal it. It would appear to be a riot of the beauties of nature and the cultivated charms of the field. I could hardly believe when I arrived here that the weather could be more delightful or the vegetation more luxuriant. I am told that in summer the heat is unbearable. However, the rainy season is in summer, which is always a consolation.

Tucuman is one of our oldest cities It was founded in 1685, and contains today some 30,000 souls. The present site is not the original one, as the foundation stone was laid in a place called Monteros, to-day a little town lying like a lap-dog at the very foot of the mountain, and several miles away from here. It appears that, owing to the prevalence of goiter, which, besides swelling out the throat enormously, had the further disadvantage of considerably diminishing brain-power, and in fact completely stultifying people, it was decided to remove the town. Another version is that the inhabitants were afraid of being washed away by the mountain torrents. Tucuman is not a handsome city, but the scenery outside hides its defects, just as a good-natured smile makes up very often for the ugliness of the face. Tucuman is a duodecimo edition of Buenos Ayres. It has more or less the same chess-board formation. There is a very fine plaza, covering 2½ acres, surrounded by such imposing structures as the church, the Cabildo, the private residences of local magnates. There are no less than five railway stations, a very significant fact, since it shews that there is a great future in store for the province, and consequently for the city, which reflects the general prosperity. The Plaza Independencia and the principal thoroughfares are lit by electricity, which, in view of the cheapness of fuel, is the least expensive way of lighting up the town. The Plaza contains many beautiful trees, two stands for the military bands, a fountain, and a number of seats "for talking age, etc." The pavement is by no means a pleasant feature. The best paved streets are more or less the same as Calle Piedad near the Balvanera Nevertheless, people here are crazy on driving. There are some splendid Parisian carriages, Russian horses and coachmen in livery. People drive round and round the plaza from three till six in the evening. The local belles are elegantly dressed, and the beaux flaunt the latest cut. You might imagine a piece of a Parisian Boulevard suddenly transplanted to Tucuman. It is very pleasant to saunter to the Plaza and sit down to contemplate this oasis in this social desert. The north side of the plaza is the fashionable promenade Around the plaza there are some shops which can compare favorably with the best in Buenos Ayres. All this life is due to the railway, which found Tucuman struggling with isolation and barbarism. In the days of Avellaneda, it took six months to reach Buenos Ayres from Tucuman. To-day Tucuman is a civilized city. There is no misery here. You see no beggars. Luxury, on the other hand, has made great strides. It has put cloths on the tables and tall hats on the heads of many. It has imported carriages and horses, and good wines. It has appropriated a part of the public plaza where, if I may parody the poet,

Pride in their port, defiance in their eye
You see the lords of Tucuman pass by.

There are two clubs here: the Foreign and the Social. The latter stands at the eastern extremity of the Plaza. It is the rendezvous of the "haut ton," government employees, sugar-planters and well-to-do shopowners. The Foreign is, as its name indicates, supported by the foreign residents, who are continually increasing in number, for the simple reason that to-day Tucuman offers the best field for commercial enterprise in the Republic. There appears to be a superabundance of money, in spite of the ruined condition of the provincial finances. There is really no crisis here. People, instead of speculating in stocks and shares, have put their money into sugar cane. All channels of commercial enterprise here flow into that industry. Everything turns to sugar. This commercial diabetes may end badly. But I feel I am getting out of my depth. I met Mr. C. J. Phillips here selling windmills and also Mr. Holt, the active manager of the Porteña Insurance Company. Both these gentlemen are thoroughly convinced of the commercial soundness and capabilities of Tucuman. The Foreign Club, which was founded two years ago, is a prosperous institution. The president is Mr. Rouges, a wealthy sugar-planter, and the manager is Mr. A. C. Pearson, brother of Captain Pearson who distinguished himself in the late Chilian Revolution. Mr. Pearson is an accomplished musician, and if you have the good luck of meeting him, you may count on passing many a pleasant evening. There are two billiard-tables and an excellent reading-room in the Club. There is also a good bar. The reading-room is well provided with the latest periodicals from Europe.

What struck me as a peculiar feature of Tucuman is the accent of the inhabitants. They seem to sing rather than to speak. The voice runs up and down without any regard for grammatical accentuation. "Puchero" is often pronounced with the accent on the first syllable. The accent would appear to depend on the position of the word in a sentence. Imagine the sentence to be a switchback railway and the voice the car running over it, and you can form an idea of this peculiar and pleasant accent of the Tucumano. There are some words which a "Porteño" could never make out, and there are certain local expressions which puzzle you. Very often the word "pie" is used for knee, a rather puzzling promotion. A mother will tell a servant to place the baby on her feet, meaning on her lap.

The women of the lower classes ride about on horses or mules selling different articles of local manufacture. As a rule they wear a black shawl wrapped round their shoulders and concealing their mouth, as if they were afraid of breathing the cold air. On the other hand you see little children running about with nothing but a tattered shirt to protect them against the cold breath of winter. The women are very active. You find them selling cakes etc. in the market and in the streets near the railway station. They don't appear to care much about wearing boots.

If you take up the history of the Argentine Republic you will find that Tucuman is a town of historic importance. Here the declaration of Independance was signed. I went to visit the house where the fundamental act took place. The building is to-day occupied by the post-office—a desecration against which the mighty spirits of the Tucuman fathers seemed to protest on the 9th. when a shock of earthquake was felt, during the celebration of the patriotic anniversary. Hasta otro dia.

Scaevola.

MR. GLADSTONE'S MANIFESTO

TO THE ELECTORS OF MID-LOTHIAN.

On the 28th of this month the mission to represent you with which you have five times honoured me will expire, and I respectfully solicit its renewal. The circumstances were arduous under which it was first conferred in 1880, but the present juncture will yet more thoroughly try the judgment and patriotism of the nation, for Great Britain will now have to decide, together with other important issues, that which is for us the question of all questions—I mean the question whether the three countries are henceforth to constitute in reality, as well as by Statute and in name, a United Kingdom.

There never was a period in which Ireland was so loyal to the Crown, so attached to Great Britain, or so united in hearts as in the year following 1762, when she enjoyed the privileges of local self-government until that concord was disturbed in 1795 by wicked machinations. For a generation after the Union she slept a deadly sleep of physical misery and political servitude The victories of reform achieved in 1829 and 1832 at length gave her consciousness and a voice. From that time to this her heavy grievances and her battling aspirations have constituted the great standing burden of your Parliament and the chief impediment to the prosecution of its arduous and complicated office for Great Britain with the energy which that office demands.

FREEDOM FOR IRELAND AND FOR PARLIAMENT.

On the outlines of the proposal for which the Liberal party has unitedly contended during the last six years, I hope before many days are over to address you. I now say it is a proposal to set both Parliament and Ireland free—Ireland for the management of her own domestic affairs by a local legislature in close sympathy with Irish life, and Parliament for the work of overtaking the vast arrears of business and supplying with reasonable despatch the varied legislative wants of England, Scotland, and Wales.

The constant growth of sound opinion, testified in the result of a multitude of by-elections, has shown that the British people, through time and persistent discussion, now thoroughly comprehend, on the one hand, how irresistible are the claims of Ireland on our honour and justice, and, on the other, how the settlement of those claims lays open the direct road to the satisfaction of British interests, too long held in suspense.

Ireland, gentlemen, indignant at the broken pledges of the Tory and Dissentient coalition, is more than ever hostile to the methods of government from Dublin Castle, once so eloquently denounced by Mr. Chamberlain; but she is calm and peaceful in her reliance upon you and the constituencies of Great Britain, and the sentiments which already prevail between the British and Irish peoples supply a happy omen of the reciprocal affection which cannot but follow the frank concession of Home Rule, sheltered by Imperial supremacy.

THE DEFECTIVE WORK OF THE GOVERNMENT

Among the few good works of the present Parliament a prominent place must be assigned to the Acts for establishing County Councils. They called into existence popular powers; they recognised in part the unity of London, but they leave London under a multitude of incapacities which amount to serious grievances. These she has plainly indicated by her vote in the late County Council election, and she will now at the General Election have to determine whether she will choose to represent her in the House of Commons the men who will do their utmost to remove them. And so throughout the counties.

We shall promote not only the establishment of a representative licensing authority, but the grant to the people of purely local powers of option, such as shall give them an effective voice in determining the conditions of the liquor traffic even up to the point of providing within properly-constituted areas for its extinction. Beyond all this, the natural and just desire for shorter hours of labour which already, both by legislation and voluntary arrangement, has obtained of late years improved satisfactions, has during the time of the present Parliament been largely developed. In that prominent and important part of the subject which concerns mining labour, I hope to have early opportunities of explanation or of conference with my constituens. At present I only summarily say that the state of things from which we have been gradually escaping was disgraceful, that what has been achieved is good; that it constitutes in itself a promise and even a guarantee of future progress; and that further progress is essential to social justice and to the general well-being. Let me, however, point out that the great good already done is due to popular government, that popular government is founded on the just appreciation of personal liberty; that the true strength of the working-classes in particular is essentially allied with that appreciation; and that neither tyranny nor anything approaching tyranny could ever prosper in your hands. I hope and believe that by tempering our proceeding with just and impartial reflection we may make further advances in the solution of this great problem, in mitigating the hardships of life, and in enlarging the opportunities of mental and moral improvement.

I have made no reference to the important subjects of foreign policy and of finance, not because they are without strong claims upon your attention, but in deference to the ever superior necessity now felt in a 'group of great political and social subjects and the sense of urgency attaching to them.

In this the sixtieth year of my political life, I necessarily feel that this must surely be the last general election at which I can expect to solicit your suffrages, and that now but a small and special share can belong to me in the work I have been endeavouring to sketch out. It is, then, an appropriate occasion for assuring you that I am deeply grateful for the confidence which has been heretofore accorded to me by an overwhelming majority of your number, and which I humbly trust I have not forfeited. And even now, closely circumscribed as is the space before me, I trust that if your minds have not changed concerning me, I may still, through the bounty of the Almighty, be permitted to render you for awhile imperfect but devoted service.

I have the honour to be, gent'emen,
Your grateful and faithful servant,
W. E. GLADSTONE.

London, June 23rd, 1892.

MR. GLADSTONE'S TRIUMPH.

Mr. Editor,

Will you allow us to suggest through your columns the celebration of the recent victory of the Liberal Party by a public dinner in this city of all Mr. Gladstone's adherents? We feel sure that the proposal only requires bringing forward to be enthusiastically taken up, and that most Liberals resident in this Republic will readily avail themselves of such an opportunity to shew that their allegiance to the Grand Old Man, and the cause he has so eloquently advocated, is not in the least weakened by residence in a foreign land.

If a sufficient number will promise their support, a committee will at once be formed to make arrangements. Letters may be addressed to either of the undersigned at Casilla de Correo 899.

Your obedient servants
Webster Atherton.
J. Monteith Drysdale.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The mail for Europe to day closes at noon, and to-morrow at 10 a. m.

Who wants electric light in his house? Everybody, if he could pay for it. Messrs. Carlos Schilder and Co., of 1530 Calle Santa Fe, have opened the first establishment in this country for making electric installations, and at half the price of the imported articles. They have just completed an installation at Mr. Moeller's beautiful chalet in Belgrano, and it will be inaugurated to-night.

The Senate met yesterday and gave Vice-President General Roca leave of absence until the 2nd of August. Nothing was said about renewing the state of siege.

Mephistopheles will be given at the National Theatre to-night. The opera has been rehearsed to perfection, and there will certainly be a great gathering of fashion, wealth and beauty in the Calle Florida house to-night.

The Radical Monster Procession, so long promised, comes off to-day. No row is expected; but military and police precautions have been taken.

We cordially endorse the proposal in another column to celebrate the Grand Old Man's triumph with a banquet; he has thousands of zealous supporters in this country.

We have thrown Dry Champagne, Sugar Cane, Canadian Whisky, Treble S, Glenlivet, Seneguina Lozenges, etc. etc, to the dogs as physic for influenza, owing to a wonderful cure we fell on yesterday. A patient who had been suffering for three months and was quite unable to shake off the bad cough which the disease left behind it, went out to ride yesterday morning on the Gauna Road. Some old cabbages thrown across a hedge frightened the horse, which bolted like a greyhound and threw the rider on the top of his best hat. He went home to breakfast cured, and has not coughed since. All who have influenza, therefore, should go for a ride on the most vicious horse they can find, hire a man to shy a cabbage at his head, and await the result: if not in perfect confidence, at least as near perfection in that direction as they can.

Mr. Niederlein informs us that his exploring expedition to Corrientes, Misiones, Chaco Austral and Formosa, having been deferred till the end of the present month, he would be greatly obliged to the many persons that are to accompany him, by their calling at the "Oficina de la Comision de la Exposicion de Chicago" 260 Calle Peru, on Wednesday next, to take final measures respecting the comfort of the journey.

In case some of our youthful readers are not aware what distance they have to run to gain the coveted prize in the coming Athletic Sports at Palermo, we are requested to let them know that it has been decided to make it 200 yards.

The Dia of La Plata has a capital eye for a good dinner, and does good daily service to its numerous readers by publishing every morning a nice and cheap "menu," which saves housekeepers the bother of cudgelling their brains as to a change in the daily fare of the family. If our esteemed colleague had asked us to dine with him on Friday, we should have accepted "efusivamente," as the following is what he had for dinner:

Potage grenoblaise.
Jrish—Stew.
Rumsteak.
Mandarines.

The only improvement we can suggest in this capital bill of fare is that the rum and the steak should be taken tandem-fashion; as a pair, they would be rather rum companions.

A drive or two in one of Lacroze's Rural Tram 'coches de lujo'. is by no means a bad cure for influenza for ladies, who, of course, cannot try a good cropper from the back of a vicious horse, as we have already recommended. These cars are little gems of comfort; the fare is only a little more, and the fresh air of the country gives one a new lease of life.

A stupendous programme has been issued for the races to be held to-day in Palermo, the total proceeds of which will be handed over to the Rosales fund. The prizes for the winners consist of gold and silver medals in lieu of the customary "shinplasters," and it remains to be seen if these will be sufficient inducement for the majority of owners to "hacer correr" their gee-gees. Stipulating for a run, the following appear to have chances:—

12.45 p.m. Premio Torpedera Espora—Polaina or Pharaon.
1.30 " " Acorazada El Plata—Stud Capitan Lopez or Belgrave.
1.15 " " Armada Nacional—Esperanza or Amazon.
3.00 " " Acorazado Andes—Eridan or Riflero.
3.45 " " Crucero Patagonia—Divina.
4.30 " " Almirante Brown—Gettatore or Infernal.
5.15 " " Crucero 25 de Mayo—Riflero or Dardo.

Boating men should read the notice from the Tigre Boat Club in another column.

The following telegrams are detained at the River Plate Telegraph Office, San Martin 287:—From Wien for Gutmann, 123 Artes, from Vercelli for Vernetti.

That most charming of suburbs, 'Quiet Quilmes,' (as we used to term it years ago) seems just now to be very much on the 'qui vive'. In addition to a dance, advertized for next month, the Rovers' Polo Club are to give a concert in the splendid Municipal Hall, for the benefit of the funds of the New Anglican Church, on the evening of Saturday next: and so sure are the Polo players of a bumper, that they have engaged a special train for the return of visitors to town at the close of the concert. In addition to several of our well-known vocalists, whose names will appear "en oportunidad," music of a high order will be a speciality. On Tuesday last, at the invitation of the Vicar, and by the kindness of Messrs. Luckman and Jones, the large patio of the new school in Quilmes was crowded with about forty ladies, to consider the project of a Bazaar for the Building Fund of the new church. A large general committee and a small working committee were appointed, and we predict, that, if it be held some time, six months hence, and in one of the lovely Quintas of Quilmes, Mr. Luckman's new church may be considered as good as built. The ladies of the neighbourhood are organizing a grand out door Féte, together with a sale of work, to be held on 8th. and 9th. December, 1892.

English-Bank-on-the brain is still raging in Montevideo. Mr. McCrindle, however, has written a second letter that has thrown some oil on the troubled waters, as he says that "an arrangement with the new bank is not only possible, but probable, and almost certain."

Al Admiral Molinas's funeral in Valparaiso a royal row was narrowly escaped. Some Balmacedistas insulted the cortege; the mob went for them, and the troops lining the streets had all they could do to save them. The parties arrested declare that they are not the offenders, and that the police arrested the wrong men.

We knew it. Public opinion over the water has settled down dead against President Herrera's latest and most mellifluous financial Message. Our friends in the Mount seem destined never to get out of the financial quagmire in which they are stuck.

What will the London holders of Confiscation Bonds say? General Fortunato Flores is going to Europe to throw a lot of cash away on new rifles and new field guns for the Banda Oriental army.

The Kermesse in Plaza San Martin threatens to 'take the coal off the pipe' of the recent B. H. B. The whole Plaza will be walled in with wood. There will be a theatre, and every imaginable kind of game and competition; amongst them a Beauty Show, concerts, conferences, "tableaux vivants"; races, shooting targets; prizes for the fattest, the thinnest, the ugliest ladies and gentlemen in or out of town, and such a lot of other things that our head swims to think of them, and our ball-pointed pen refuses to write them down.

We have to thank Galli Hermanos for the Summer Number of the London Graphic, which is very good.

We understand that the Honble Mr. Pitkin, U. S. Minister, is so far recovered that he will sail for England in the Iberia on the 30th inst.

The Director General of Posts and Telegraphs, Dr. Carlos Carles, has solicited of the Executive Power the approval of the general regulations and of the internal telegraph projected by the Administration under his charge. The note accompanying the regulations states that the present telegraph system does not meet the necessities and progress of this branch of the public service.

There is a well known and highly respectable notary in Montevideo whose name is John Moratorio. If there is anything in a name, this gentleman is the right man in the right place; as Moratorios, ums and ibuses are likely to be plentiful in the capital of Uruguay before long.

Two of the rascals who swindled the London and River Plate Bank in 1890 and 1891 by means of forged cheques have been caught, a Post Office clerk having met one of them in the street and recognized him. The fellows have only just returned from Europe, where they had a high old time of it on their ill-gotten gains.

The Belgrano Polo Club will play a match on their ground to-day at 2.30 p. m. against the Rovers's Club. Mrs. Ennor has kindly consented to dispense tea, and, as the gentle spring is now approaching, we trust there will be a large attendance. The members are requ

ON 'CHANGE.
Saturday, 23rd July.

The gold market ruled steady all morning, but slightly weaker than yesday. Little attention was paid to political rumours, as there is a conviction that the moment any critical juncture be imminent the Government, or Congress, will declare state of siege. The bulls tried to make much out of the political procession to-morrow in honor of the revolution, but their efforts failed. A sense of security is gradually gaining ground, as the Government has given proofs of its energy in similar emergencies. About seventeen thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring: the price opened at $53.10, rose to 53.30 and closed at 53, say 225.65 % premium. Sovereigns opened at 16.52 and closed at 16.47, say 227 % premium. The market closed weak at last rates, sellers all round.

Patriotic Bonds were neglected. Ever since the decrees of the Government cancelling the subscription to the Banco de la Nacion, and ordering a heavy amortization of these bonds, the market has reached a level beyond which it appears unable to rise. The principal business consists in passing over operations from month to month. This morning ten thousand bonds only were sold at 71.10 for cash. Internal Bonds were also dull, although they may be considered the most profitable and plausible investment in the market; about fifty thousand were sold at 63¾ for cash and 63.80 for the end of the month. As interest bearing securities, Patriotic and Internal Bonds are the only Government stock investment in the market, and it is a wonder to see them so dull and so cheap at a moment when the banks are discounting at 5½ % per anuum. The probabilities are in favor of a rise in both these stocks.

There was a sudden falling-off in the relatively active speculation in Catalinas this morning, but prices continued steady at 9.90 for cash and 10 for the end of month. Municipal Lottery Bonds rose again to 58, but could not maintain the quotation, closing at 57. Spanish Bank shares were firm at 108. A few shares of the Lavaderos Publicos changed hands at 4; this unfortunate company, started with the very best prospects and on the steadiest foundations, is one of the most eloquent proofs of the crisis: it is to be hoped that the municipality will take over the many washing establishments of the company and turn them to good account: all the establishments were on a first class footing and could compare favorably with the best similar undertakings in Europe. La Plata Cedulas were slightly weaker this morning, closing under 30: the cedula market was very dull.

Exchange continues dull and weak. The banks have lowered their drawing rates and a general decline has ensued since Monday. Banking paper to-day was quoted at 47¾-8d. on London and 4.85 to 4.94 fcs. on Paris; commercial paper was done at 47¾-8d. on London and 4.96 to 4.97½ fcs. on Paris. Very few operations were effected; bills ruled scarce. Discounts continued very easy at all the banks; 5¼ to 6% was current all round. As further paper issues are in store for the redemption of Patriotic Bonds, it is probable that the discount rate will fall still lower next month, unless the gold market fly upward and upset all calculations.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

There is some talk in the market of a fresh extension of the Great Southern Railway from Bahia Blanca to Patagones. We think the news is premature, although the extension is a necessary and natural prolongation of the present great trunk line to the south. In connection with this report, it is stated that the National Government is turning its attention to the necessity of providing an arsenal and naval port for the fleet, and the port of San Blas is mentioned as the most strategic and best site for the object. The bay has a deep channel, splendid anchorage, ample room, and its shores afford many facilities for docks not to be met in Bahia Blanca or nearer North. All the railway plant for a line from San Blas to the neighboring salt lakes has already been purchased by the Rio Negro Salt Company Ld., and it looks as if that distant southern territory is rapidly coming to the front.

The Pacific steamer Iberia, from Valparaiso, arrived at and left Coronel on 20th July: she is expected at Montevideo on the 30th and is posted to leave same day for Europe.

The Chargeurs Reunis steamer Uruguay has been dispatched to Havre and Dunkerque with 2000 bales of wool, 15,000 bags wheat and maize, 6,000 salted and 3,000 dry hides.

Mr. Ernest Hartenfels has brought an action against Dr. R. Peña for nonfulfilment of a sale of land in the Partido Coronel Suarez, to-day General Lamadrid: the land embraces 8,000 hectares and has a mortgage of 100,000$ gold and 34,900 Cedulas I. The plaintiff claims 66,000$ damages.

The Governor of Chubut has sent a note to the National Government urging the necessity of starting a pastoral colony for the Indians in that territory. The Governor states that the Indian population reaches 400 souls and that they are homeless.

In a note to the Minister of the Interior, the Governor of Chubut states that some settlers have sold holdings of 100 hectares as high as 2,000£, an enormous price for land in that territory or valley.

The German Minister has applied to the Argentine Foreign Office for details of land laws and colonization in this republic.

The English Bank of the River Plate was crowded to-day with friends and customers, glad to see the resuscitation of the Bank. Mr. Jones, the manager, was congratulated on all sides on the final success of the new evolution. Numerous new accounts were entered to-day and the whole market welcomes the new concern. The re-starting of the English Bank marks a new departure in the market; it points to a banking improvement that seems simply wonderful when contrasted with the terrible distrust and gloom of this time last year when a daily run on the banks and a daily attack on Congress or the Government house were a daily apprehension. "Quantum mutatus ab illo"—we see all the banks discounting to-day at 5½%!!

Fresh telegrams from London announce a further improvement in Argentine stocks and shares. Our London friends are booming again: it may be remarked that a London boom proves the prelude of some sudden "degringolade," just as the departure of General Roca from this city is invariably the precussor of political uneasiness: coincidence, no doubt; but the the facts stand and are borne in mind by the market, which keenly watches these financial and political symptoms of the country's infirmity. It was said on 'Change this afternoon that we were on the eve of another state of siege: need we add that the rumour put down the price of gold?

Telegrams from Montevideo to-day announced a sharp fall in Cedulas A; they closed at 24.90.

Telegrams are expected to-morrow from St. Vincent announcing the arrival of the Matteo Bruzzo at that port, bound from the Plate for Genoa. It is hoped that the Matteo Bruzzo may give some news of the missing crew of the Rosales; this is a last hope; it is presumed that the Matteo Bruzzo was in the vicinity of the Rosales at the time of the shipwreck.

Large maize operations were spoken of to-day at 6.15$ % per 100 kilos. Wheat was quoted at 9$. We see that the French steamer Uruguay left with several thousand bales of wool.

Messrs Lorthiois and Company have sold to Messrs Tomkinson, Dungey and Company 9,000 bags of maize, placed alongside the steamer in the Boca, at $6.25% per 100 kilos.

Lincoln wethers were sold at the Tablada to-day at $11 and $11.10 per head. Rambouillet wethers fetched 6 and $5 per head for "matadero."

The Diario publishes the following table of the average price of ounces for the half-year, compared with same period last year:—

	1891	1892
January.....	322	381.25
February....	342	362.51
March.....	342	344.38
April.....	344	334.93
May.....	410	329.95
June.....	369	316.73

Mr. Leonardo Pereyra has sold some special bullocks at 80$ ½ 'carne y sebo' and 85$ % 'en pié'; these animals are from his estancia Los Juncalitos, in Ayacucho.

357 fat cows are reported sold at 27$ ½ 'carne y sebo' and 7$ for hides.

The gold market ruled dull and weak at the second ring. About six thousand ounces only were sold for Monday; the price opened at 53$, fell to 52.70, and closed at 52.80, say 224.41 per cent premium. Sovereigns closed at 16.40$, say 225.38 per cent premium. Patriotic and National Bonds were stationary. Cedulas closed weak at 29.80 all round. Some Old Gas shares changed hands at 90 and Banco de Comercio at 87. Municipal Lottery Bonds closed at 58.

We have received the following for publication:—

"July 23, 1892.

"Dear Sir,

"Your Money report of late has shewn a feeling against Catalinas, and has not been impartial. Thursday's edition, the sales in the second ring omitted; Friday's edition, market weaker, although they closed at previous day's prices; Saturday's edition (to-day), a sale at 9.60 was given, but I bought a few at 9.90, the lowest price of a 'bona-fide' sale yesterday, to average. In common with other shareholders, I ask no favor, but fair play, in your Market Report (which is second to no other paper and influences many). A tumble down from 380 to present prices needs no kicking when down.

"This Company paid the interest on loans with 6 months' working, after its right to one ship's cargo in three was restored to it by the Government; the stores have been full for weeks, and goods piled outside until completion of the new stores now building. I do not name this from hearsay, but from what I have personally seen, and you can confirm by inspection. This year they will doubtless show a good surplus, after paying the interest on loans with 12 months' profitable working, and if wise will pay off part of the loan in preference to a dividend.

"Kindly excuse my letter, which is not written in an unfriendly spirit, but my interest in the Catalinas Company prompts me to call your attention to errors that may have been unintentional, and I believe are so.

"I remain,

"Yours truly,

"Fair Play."

CHARLES OLMI
A GRANDIOSE AUCTION SALE
Notable Furniture
INIMITABLE
A Veritable Exhibition

Incomparable show of tapestry, admirable oil paintings, truly artistic by Salmini, Della Vedova, Brancaccio, Bourget, Manfredi and Mantegazza.

Superb door hangings, carpets, splendid piano, notable drawing room, sala, magnificent Venetian office suite admirably carved, girl's bedroom Louis XVI., a superb dining room suite in the style of Henri II., a grandiose bedroom suite artistically carved, bought in the Paris Exhibition; another bachelor's bedroom, billiard saloon, halls, zaguan etc.

On Monday 25th of July at 12 noon (sharp)

I will proceed to sell at public auction for order and account of the owner

Mr. Ramon de Oliveira Cézar, all the valuable imported furniture which adorns his

Sumptuous Palace
1244--CHILE--1244
between Salta and Santiago del Estero

Part of this rich furniture and of the artistic oil paintings were bought by Dr. Eduardo Wilde in Europe, and presented to Mr. Oliveira Cezar (his father in law.)

Connoisseurs and all parties desirous of obtaining masterpieces ought to take advantage of this really exceptional occasion. In order that those interested may have time to fully examine and impress on their minds the excellence of the tapestry, the costly make of the furniture and the exceptional artistic value of the paintings and bronzes, the house will be on exhibition from Saturday 18th, day and evening, till the day of the auction, that is, 3 clear days before the auction.

Catalogues can be obtained in the palace itself and in my offices from the same date on.

The following is only a partial precis of the articles to be sold:—

Drawing-Room

A superb drawing room suite, new, in the style of Louis XIV.; regal carpet, very expensive door hangings, artistic oil paintings, bevelled mirrors, bronzes, marbles and ornaments. Every article in this room is of the first class.

Parlour

A superb piano by Boardman and Gray (New York), grand upright, (as good as Steinway); fine tapestry, door hangings, mirrors, bronzes etc. I invite people of taste to examine the door hangings and tapestry of this room.

Office

The office suite ought to be inspected: imported from Venice, it is admirably carved. The suite is composed of 2 bookcases, 1 writing desk and 4 chairs, it is a valuable suite, made by the world-renowned firm of Cardiani & Co. from Venice. Also: door hangings, carpets and other ornaments.

Girl's Bed-Room

A French bedroom suite in the style of Louis XV., in walnut, very elegant. Also: other pieces.

The Grand Dining Room

In the style of Henri II., all solid walnut; it is a magnificent suite with 18 solid stamped leather chairs, metals, porcelain, valuable tea-set in solid silver, costly table service in solid silver. Every article in the dining room is of the best make.

The Grandiose Bed-Room

Was bought personally in the Paris Exhibition, and I can only request people of taste to inspect for themselves and admire the artistic importance of this suite.

The suite is composed of a large wardrobe in three compartments, 2 night stands, 1 grand bed, 1 washstand, 1 small dressing table, door hangings, canopy etc

Bachelor's Bed-Room

An American suite complete.

Billiard Room

A new billiard table, ivory balls, cues etc.

Then: Halls, Zaguan etc

Osler gas brackets in all the palace; a magnificent chandelier in the saloon and another in the dining room.

It is a sheer impossibility to describe the masterpieces that are about to be sold; but connoisseurs can visit the house, certain to find furniture and textiles and other objects unapproachable as works of art.

The auction will take place on Monday 25th inst. at 12 noon sharp, and the palace can be visited from Saturday 23rd, day and evening, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Catalogues from the same date.

As I have already stated, part of the furniture and objects of art were bought personally by Don Eduardo Wilde in Europe, and presented to Mr. Oliveira (his father in law) so, I consider this occasion as an exceptional opportunity.

En nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482

El Miercoles 10 de Agosto

a las 2 de la tarde

Remataremos por cuenta y orden de una Sociedad y por liquidacion total de la misma, 233,762 hectareas, 66 areas y 39 centiareas ubicadas en la Provincia de Santa Fe, donde como todo el mundo sabe, existen las mas vastas y ricas colonias de agricultores de la Republica y cuyos habitantes no conocen la crisis que ha abrumado al resto de ellas, debido a las esplendidas y abundantes cosechas que les han dado estas sin iguales tierras.

La ubicacion de estas queda al Oeste del gran ferro-carril que arranca de la capital de la republica y cruza toda la rica y poblada zona de colonias terminando en la ciudad de Tucuman.

Comiensan las tierras que se ofrecen en venta, en la Estacion Arrufo del ferro-carril mencionado y van hasta la Estacion Ceres de la cual distan 2 a 2 1/2 leguas estando el resto de ellas ubicadas sobre la Estacion Malbran extendiendose al Sud Oeste de la misma.

Todas estas tierras estan medidas, y midiendose el resto por el Agrimensor Publico, Señor Eduardo Elquera, y seran entregadas amojonadas a todos y cada uno de los compradores una vez escrituradas.

Tenemos de una carta de dicho Agrimensor, lo pertinente a la fraccion que acaba de medir, que dice:—

"Respecto de la clase de tierra, se puede considerar de tener igual calidad de tierra vejetal de 50 centimetros termino medio de tierra negra, terrenos muy altos, el agua potable obteniendose de 6 a 12 metros. No hay montes espesos,(exceptuando las tierras que estan al Norte sobre la Estacion Malbran donde los montes son muy abundantes y en partes impenetrables) sino isletas de arboles v. g. ñandubay, algarrobo, palo amarillo, algarrobo negro, etc. etc.

"El lote 85 es algo bajo terreno inferior.

"Los demas lotes son adecuados para la agricultura y se encuentaan rodeados de colonias es mas pobladas y otras en formacion y cerca a las Estaciones Arrufo, Herzilia, Ceres, del gran ferro-carril de B. Aires a Tucuman.

"Las poblac ones que se advierten en el plano son pobladores que tienen animales de cria (vacuno, yeguerizo y ovino) en todas ellas hay jagueles para dar agua a las haciendas.

"La temperatura de esta region es la misma que reina en de donde dista unas 20 leguas."

Creemos que con estos datos nada tenemos que alegar sobre la bondad de estos terrenos que solo necesitan los brazos de hombres para hacerlos producir y con sus frutos sacar en un par de años doble de lo que se ha pagado por ellas.

La Provincia de Santa Fe que hace apenas 15 años, puede decirse, hera casi desierta, hoy es un damero cruzads en todas direcciones por lineas terreas pobladas por innumerables colonias que robosan de poblacion rica y activa; llenas de molinos a vapor, elevadores de granos, fabricas e industrias sin fin.

Antes del finde este siglo, la Provincia de Santa Fe enviara al mundo de sus granos de todas clases como lo hacen actualmente los Estados Unidos del Norte.

Creemos inutil insistir en mayores detalles sobre lo que son y seran estas tierras; asi estan sus hechos que dicen mas de lo que podriamos decir nosotros.

Llamaremos si la atencion de los compradores sobre las condiciones de la venta a saber:—

Sin base ni limitacion alguna por lo que den.

El pago se hara una cuarta parte al contado y el resto a 6, 9 y 12 meses de plazo con pagare hipotecario.

5 o/o al firmar el boleto a cuenta del precio y en caso de no escriturar dentro de los 30 dias de la venta perdera el comprador dicho 5 o/o y quedara resuelto el contrato a opcion de los vendedores quienes podran exijir la escrituracion si asi les conviene.

Planos y pormenores se obtendran en nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482.
